

Alisha DeBerry is a distinguished Notary Public instructor with over a decade of experience in teaching the Notary Public course. Her extensive knowledge and dedication to the field have made her a highly sought after educator. Alisha has had the honor of being one of four finalists selected as Notary of the Year for the National Notary Association in 2017, a testament to her exceptional contributions to the profession.

In addition to her role as an educator, Alisha is a managing member of Platinum Group Realty, where she serves as the Broker in Charge in both North Carolina and South Carolina.

Her leadership and expertise have been pivotal in guiding the company's success.

Alisha also holds the position of Education Director at the Platinum Institute of Real Estate. In this capacity, she serves as the lead instructor, providing comprehensive real estate education, including Pre-licensing, Continuing Education, and Post Licensing courses. Her ability to deliver high-quality education has positively impacted thousands of students throughout her career.

Alisha's expertise extends beyond the classroom. She has been featured as a panelist for the NC Secretary of State Annual eMortgage Closing conference, sharing her insights on the evolving landscape of electronic notary practices. Her contributions to the field have helped shape the future of notarial practices in North Carolina.

With a passion for education and a commitment to excellence, Alisha DeBerry continues to inspire and educate the next generation of notaries and real estate professionals. Her involvement in the NC Notary Association conference, where she will be teaching the eNotary class, is a reflection of her dedication to advancing the profession and supporting her peers in the industry.

Alisha's accolades and achievements underscore her role as a leader and innovator in the notary and real estate education fields. Attendees of the NC Notary Association conference will benefit immensely from her expertise and experience.